FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Birdland at the Emelin Theatre

Mamaroneck, NY- Birdland Jazz Club, "Jazz Corner of the World," and the renowned Emelin Theatre are proud to announce an exciting partnership to present a new jazz series that will showcase the best in the genre today. This collaboration promises to bring world-class performances to audiences in the heart of Westchester County, blending Birdland's storied legacy with the welcoming, intimate setting of the Emelin Theatre.

The new jazz series will feature an eclectic mix of performances, ranging from legendary jazz artists to rising stars, and highlighting the diverse range of sounds and styles that have defined the genre.

"The partnership with Birdland reinforces our commitment to world class programming, right here, in our own community," said David Bander, Executive Director of the Emelin Theatre. "Our community has shown a demand for jazz, and working with Birdland will allow us to present a broad range of top artists to serve our patrons."

"We are thrilled to partner with the Emelin Theatre to bring exceptional jazz performances to Westchester," said Gianni Valenti, Owner of Birdland Jazz Club for over 40 years. "Birdland has always been a space for legendary musicians to shine, and we are excited to extend our reach and share this passion with the great community of jazz lovers in Westchester."

Performances to be announced soon, tickets for the series will be available for purchase on the Emelin Theatre website, www.emelin.org.
