FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Emelin Theatre Announces Spectacular 2024-25 Season Lineup

Mamaroneck, NY – August 6th – The Emelin Theatre proudly announces its 2024-25 season, featuring a stellar lineup of top-tier music, mind-blowing magic, dynamic family shows, hilarious comedy, and more. As we continue to uphold our legacy of excellence, we're expanding our programming to also captivate a broader, younger, and more diverse audience, inviting them to become lifelong enthusiasts of the arts.

Opening Weekend Extravaganza

The season kicks off with an unforgettable opening weekend beginning Friday, September 27th with acclaimed singer-songwriter Howie Day. Known for his multi-platinum hit "Collide," Day will captivate audiences with his heartfelt lyrics and powerful melodies. Also joining the weekend lineup are The Bell Bottom Blues, paying tribute to the legendary music of Eric Clapton, and in celebration of Hispanic Heritage month we are excited to host The Okee Dokee Brothers & Sonia De Los Santos, who will bring joy to families with their energetic bilingual performance of "Somos Amigos - Songs on Common Ground."

Season Highlights

This season's lineup features premiere performances by:

- Loudon Wainwright III: Don't miss the chance to see Loudon Wainwright III live! His GRAMMY-winning blend of poignant lyrics and engaging storytelling makes for an unforgettable performance that connects deeply with audiences.
- Vitaly: An Evening of Wonders: He stumped Penn & Teller twice on their hit TV show "Fool Us." Vitaly's mind-bending illusions have amazed and entertained audiences globally, including a successful off-Broadway run.
- 123 Andrés: Join us for an interactive family experience with 123 Andrés as they perform "Un Regal Para Andrés / A Gift For Andrés...A Holiday Concert for the Family." This GRAMMY-winning duo brings their energetic and educational show to the Emelin Theatre, featuring a vibrant mix of Spanish and English songs, lively Latin rhythms, and holiday cheer.

- Glen Phillips: Catch Glen Phillips live and experience the soulful voice and introspective lyrics of the lead singer of Toad the Wet Sprocket. His performance blends classic hits with fresh material, offering a unique musical journey.
- Emmet Cohen Trio: This renowned jazz ensemble, led by virtuoso pianist Emmet Cohen, is celebrated for their innovative interpretations and dynamic performances that breathe new life into jazz standards.
- Alex Cuba: Experience the unique sound of Alex Cuba, a Juno and GRAMMY Award-winning artist who blends soul, funk, and jazz. His heartfelt performances and distinctive style make for a compelling and memorable show.
- Tammy Pescatelli: Get ready to laugh with Tammy Pescatelli, whose sharp wit and relatable humor promise a night of comedy that resonates with everyone. Her engaging presence and quick delivery make for an evening of unforgettable laughs.
- Dominique Fils-Aimé: Captivating vocalist and songwriter, Dominique Fils-Aimé explores the rich legacy of African American music. Her powerful voice and evocative performances delve into the roots of blues, jazz, and soul.

"We are incredibly excited to present this vibrant lineup for our 2024-25 season," said David Bander, Executive Director of the Emelin Theatre. "From the soul-stirring music of Howie Day and Loudon Wainwright III to the magical wonders of Vitaly and the heartwarming family performances by The Okee Dokee Brothers & Sonia De Los Santos, there is truly something for everyone this season."
